“ Dear Marc, my apologies for being so late. I lost my connection to FB, and so i haven't been in touch. My mind goes back to the late 60s, when you and Clair were standing in the same room with myself, Gary Skorman and perhaps Lowell Katz. My deepest condolences. Allan Weiser

“ Marc, Nicolle, Steven, Adam Chase, Henry and Elleanor: Seeing the announcement in the Cleveland Jewish News broke my heart; though through time we have drifted apart, still held Claire in my heart, as she helped me, as did you, when my wife passed. I doubt I could have made it without the support and caring you both provided in my time of need. I remember so well all of the great times with both of you over the years. Please know you and your family are in my heart and my thoughts. Please accept my deepest and most sincere condolences at this time, that though we mourn we also celebrate Claire in her great life and how that her being here enriched the lives of so many, myself included. If I may ever been of assistance to you, please do not hesitate to contact me, as doing so would be my pleasure.

יהי רצון שאלוהים יקבל את קלייר בזרועותיו ויעניק לה לנצח שלווה ושלווה. אָמֵן

“ I met Claire when we were both employed at Keithley Instruments' Solon location and, as we were the only two native Francophones in the facility, we became friends. She was an extraordinarily sweet person and the very soul of kindness. She will be greatly missed by all who were lucky enough to have known her. Rest in peace, Claire.
