

Judith Fair

December 18, 1936 - June 27, 2024

Judith “Judy” Fair was born December 18, 1936 in Cleveland, OH to Sally and Jack Facter. Sally and Jack (pre-deceased) raised Judy and her brother Alan (pre-deceased) in Cleveland. Judy was a graduate of Cleveland Heights High School. She grew up at Sinai Synagogue and received a bat mitzvah at 76 years of age.

She was married for 50 years to Ronald “Sonny” Fair who predeceased her. The family had three children: Joe Fair ; Jackie (Paul) Charlillo ; and Adam (Miriam) Fair. She will be missed by her grandchildren: Jeremy and Josh Charlillo, Ashley Francis, Jerrod Fair, and Julia Fair-Miozzi. She was great-grandmother to Zoey Francis, Joey Charlillo, and Kennedy Charlillo.

Judy fiercely protected her kids, grandkids and their loved ones. Her love shone through in heartfelt conversations that ranged from asking her family what they were having for dinner - to insightful reflections on presidential history.

Judy loved her family and friends, as well as reading mysteries and following Cleveland sports. She enjoyed hearing about all the details of her children and children’s lives. She spoke with them daily. Judy loved the Cleveland Browns - especially Myles Garrett.

Judy had a variety of work experiences, from bank teller to Bag Lady - a business she started with her husband. They sold purses throughout greater Cleveland.

Graveside funeral will be Sunday, June 30, 2024 at 1:00 PM - Hillcrest Cemetery, 26200 Aurora Rd, Bedford Heights, OH 44146.

The family will receive shiva visitors at their Beachwood home immediately after services.
