

Linda Green

August 18, 1952 - October 21, 2025

Linda Green (nee Stern), 73, passed away on Oct. 21, 2025.

Linda was the beloved wife of Sheldon Green,; devoted mother of Adam (of blessed memory) and Jake (Tyler), and loving sister of Carole (Bruce) Switzer.

Born in Washington, D.C., Linda was proud to be an American, born of immigrants. She believed in societal responsibility, civic duty and community, spending much of her life participating in Jewish life and building dear, lasting friendships. Linda was always curious, an avid reader and a lifelong learner.

Linda dedicated her career to public service, helping to develop the Paratransit bus system while working at the Greater Cleveland Regional Transit Authority, before shifting to Cuyahoga County Job and Family Services, where she helped local families navigate the complexities of food programs and other forms of assistance. She also spent over 25 years teaching sociology at a variety of higher education institutions, including primarily at Cuyahoga County Community College.

Services will be held graveside at 1 p.m. Oct. 23 at Mount Olive Cemetery at 27855 Aurora Road in Solon.

The family will receive visitors at the home of their friends, Edna and Jeffrey

Pearl (2579 Lafayette Drive, University Heights), during the following times: 5 to 8:30 p.m. Oct. 23, with mincha/maariv minyan at 6:15 p.m.; 1 to 4 p.m. Oct. 24, with mincha minyan at 2:30 p.m.; and from 5 to 8:30 p.m. Oct. 26 to Oct. 28, with mincha/maariv minyan at 6:15 p.m.

May her memory be for a blessing.

Donations to Friendship Circle of Cleveland or National Council of Jewish Women are welcomed in Linda's honor.

Arrangements under the direction of Cleveland Jewish Funerals.
