“ My aunt Roz was a great jazz dancer, and dance teacher, a great cook, a dog lover (had several Yorkies, and Maltese) and collected antique furniture to furnish her home on Echo Glen in Gates Mills. She also visited my mom Hannah Friedland Ehrman who moved to Florida and operated a boutique in Boca Raton after the death of her husband Robert Ehrman (my father) who was the brother of Roz who died in 1967. She was a strong, independent woman and wife of Irv Katz, who was a civil engineer, Case Tech grad and a Colonel in the Air Force reserve.
