

Vilen Fishzon

December 11, 1937 - January 23, 2026

Vilen Fishzon passed away on January 23, 2026. He was 88 years old. Vilen was born in Baku, Azerbaijan - then a part of the Soviet Union. He was born to Markus and Sofia (Boozy) Fishzon and had an older sister and brother named Elizabeth and Manus.

Vilen had a sharp mind and studied at Novosibirsk State University. He received a PhD in Economics and worked as a research economist for many years. Vilen is survived by his son Arkadiy and his grandchildren Arseniy and Alexander. He immigrated to Cleveland in 1997 where he met and married Larissa Liberman.

He was a vigorous man of many talents and passions. He loved writing poetry, playing sports, mountaineering, hiking, skiing and music - particularly singing. His family recalls how he used to enjoy taking the children to swim on the beaches of the Caspian Sea.

There will be a graveside burial at Mount Sinai Cemetery (6576 White Road, Mayfield Village, OH 44143) on Sunday January 25, 2025 at 1:30 PM.
